

Connecting people headquarters in Matsudo

'Matsudo DE Tsunagaru Station'

- Creating a place for people of all generations -

- Matsudo City holds "Matsudo DE Tsunagaru Station" as an initiative to create a place where people of all generations living in the community can participate and create connections with each other in the community.
- Event programs and locations are planned together with the local community residents.
- The schedule for the next event is listed on their respective websites (QR codes below), so why not visit a "Station" near you?

Goko Matsuhidai

A variety of toys for all ages to enjoy are available.

You can spend a good time chatting with the locals over tea.

Mutsumi Rokkodai

～ Tsudou de Roku Roku 66 ～

There are two locations where locals gather a few times a month to chat over tea.

There are fun activities that can be enjoyed with many people in a large space.

Kogane

～ Kogane Waku Waku Noen ～

We enjoy growing vegetables with people of different ages.

Sometimes we cook and eat the harvested vegetables together.

Koganehara

This is a place where you can spend your time doing whatever you like.

You can talk with locals and play board games.

Shinmatsudo

People from the local community interact by playing various games and holding a "used book festival".

You can spend time talking about your favorite books and drinking tea.

Mabashi Nishi

～ Minna de Wai Wai ～

We enjoy playing the sport "boccia" together with people of many ages.

Boccia tournaments are scheduled in the spring and fall.

Mabashi

～ Mabashi de Enjoy! ～

Come join the people of all ages and play with traditional Japanese toys and more.

This year, we plan to eat vegetables we have grown in the field.
